

I am a skilled Automation Test Engineer with more than four years of professional experience. With a good understanding of the fundamental testing principles, software life cycle, and design techniques, I can create various types of automated tests. In addition to that, I was engaged in back-end development for about 1 year.

Being a persistent, punctual, and hard-working team player, I am eager to face challenging tasks and obtain new knowledge.